

Courses for Para Professionals to earn Standard Certification

- Graduate level courses – apply to your Master’s
- Accelerated format - 6 - 8 weeks
- Hybrid format –course work is face-to-face and online
- Relevant instructors are currently teaching in the public schools
- All face-to-face meetings held on SNU’s Bethany campus

Choose four of the following:*

ED6553 Reading Assessment and Instruction (*Required)
Begins September 13, 2016, Tuesday night.
Meets face-to-face five times and online. Course concludes November 1, 2016.

ED6223 Educational Psychology
Begins October 27, 2016, Thursday night.
Meets face-to-face and concludes on December 16, 2016.

ED6233 Education Technology
Begins January 3, 2017, Tuesday night.
Meets face-to-face four times and online. Course concludes February 21, 2017.

ED6093 Sociology: Culture and Community of Schools
Begins February 8, 2017, Wednesday night.
Meets face-to-face February 8, 15, and 22, March 8, 15, and 22.

ED6523 Classroom Leadership
Begins February 23, 2017, Thursday night
Meets face-to-face four times and online. Course concludes April 6, 2017.

Cost? Cost includes all tuition, fees, books, iPad and keyboard. Financial aid is available.*

Questions? Contact Dr. Stephoni Case at Southern Nazarene University
405-491-6346 or email scase@snu.edu

Ready to enroll? Great! Contact Patti Milford at 405-491-6346.
You’ll be all set to begin in just a few minutes. You may also go to SNU.edu/MAEL and click the Apply ribbon for a quick application that will provide us with all of your information to get started with your acceptance to SNU. Under Program of Interest, select Master of Arts in Education Leadership, and then you’ll be enrolled in the ‘Para Professional to Standard Certification program.’